

Student Absences and Excuses

One criteria of a student's success in school is regular and punctual attendance. Frequent absences may lead to poor academic work, lack of social development and possible academic failure. Regular attendance is of utmost importance for school interest, social adjustment and scholastic achievement. No single factor may interfere with a student's progress more quickly than frequent tardiness or absence.

According to state law, it is the obligation of every parent to ensure that every child under his/her care and supervision receives adequate education and training and, if of compulsory attendance age, attends school.

Continuity in the learning process and social adaptation is seriously disrupted by excessive absences. In most situations, the work missed cannot be made up adequately. Students who have good attendance generally achieve higher grades, enjoy school more and are more employable after leaving school. For at least these reasons, the Board believes that a student must satisfy two basic requirements in order to earn full class credit: (1) satisfy all academic requirements and (2) exhibit good attendance habits as stated in this policy.

Exempted absences

An absence from school as verified by the principal or principal designee, which does NOT count toward chronic absenteeism is considered an exempted absence. Exempted absences include:

- a. working at an official election
- b. court appearances and court-ordered activities
- c. service in the National Guard
- d. serving as a page for the General Assembly
- e. suspensions, either in-school or out-of-school
- f. funeral of an immediate family member

If a student is in out-of-home placement (as that term is defined by C.R.S. 22-32-138 (1)(e)), absences due to court appearances and participation in court-ordered activities shall be exempted. The student's assigned social worker shall verify the student's absence was for a court appearance or court-ordered activity.

School excused absences

An absence for an activity that is sponsored by the school, in which the student is a participant, is considered school excused. School absences will be determined by the school administration.

Excused absences

The following shall be considered excused absences:

1. A student who is temporarily ill or injured or whose absence is approved by the administrator of the school of attendance on a prearranged basis. Prearranged absences shall be approved for appointments or circumstances of a serious nature only that cannot be taken care of outside of school hours.
2. A student who is absent for an extended period due to physical, mental or emotional disability.

As applicable, the district may require suitable proof regarding the above exceptions, including written statements from medical sources.

Unexcused absences

An unexcused absence is defined as an absence that is not covered by one of the foregoing exceptions. Each unexcused absence shall be entered on the student's record. The parents of the student receiving an unexcused absence shall be notified orally or in writing by the district of the unexcused absence.

In accordance with law, the district may impose appropriate penalties that relate directly to classes missed while unexcused. Penalties may include a warning, school detention or in-school suspension. Out-of-school suspensions or expulsion shall not be imposed for any unexcused absence.

The administration shall develop procedures to implement appropriate strategies and penalties. The school administration shall consider the correlation between course failure, truancy and a student dropping out of school in developing these procedures and shall implement research-based strategies to re-engage students with a high number of unexcused absences.

Students and parents may petition the Board of Education for exceptions to this policy provided that no exception shall be sustained if the student fails to abide by all requirements imposed by the Board as conditions for granting any such exception.

The maximum number of unexcused absences a student may incur before judicial proceedings are initiated to enforce compulsory attendance is 9 days during any one semester or 18 days during any one calendar year or school year.

Chronic absenteeism

When a student has an excessive number of absences, these absences negatively impact the student's academic success. For this reason, a student who has 9 days in a semester or 18 days in a school year, whether the absences are excused or unexcused, may be identified as "chronically absent" by the principal or designee. Absences due to suspension or expulsion shall not be counted in the total number of absences considered for purposes of identifying a student as "chronically absent."

If a student is identified as "chronically absent," the principal or designee shall develop a plan to improve the student's attendance. The plan shall include best practices and research-based strategies to address the reasons for the student's chronic absenteeism, including but not limited to the following:

The principal or designee will notify all students and/or their parents who were determined to be "chronically absent" the prior year, (more than 18 absences for the year) and meet with the student and/or parents to put a plan in place for the school year. They will also notify all teachers/stakeholders who have these students in class of the plan and ask for assistance in building a relationship to keep them in class.

If a student has four (4) non-exempted absences in a semester, a letter and phone call will to be made if there is no formal documentation supporting those absences. This communication will be to notify parents that formal documentation is needed to be an excused absence for the remainder of the semester.. Written statements from medical sources and preapproved absences are examples of suitable proof for excused absences. The letter and communication will notify parents and student of the potential consequences for future absences.

If a student is absent six (6) days within a semester, a parent and the student will be required to meet with the school administration to develop an attendance improvement plan.

Every absence in a class period counts toward the nine (9) allowable absences per day per semester or the accumulated sixty-three (63) periods per semester, excluding exempted absences.

Consequences for more than 9 non-exempt absences per semester are as follows:

- 1) A student may forfeit all credit for the semester regardless of status in class.
- 2) A student may be removed to ISS for the remainder of the semester to complete existing course or an alternative course.
- 3) A student may be required to make up time outside of school hours.
- 4) The DCSD Attendance Review Board may meet with students and their parents based on attendance limits being reached throughout the school year.

An absence will be defined as missing more than fifteen (15) minutes of class without a pass authorizing the absence. At the elementary schools or schools taking attendance in the AM and PM only, students will be considered absent if they miss more than 45 minutes.

Nothing herein shall require the principal or designee to identify a student as "chronically absent" prior to declaring the student as a "habitual truant" and pursuing court proceedings against the student and his or her parents to compel the student's attendance in accordance with state law.

Make-up work

Make-up work shall be provided for any class in which a student has an excused absence unless otherwise determined by the building administrator or unless the absence is due to the student's expulsion from school. It is the responsibility of the student to pick up any make-up assignments permitted on the day returning to class. There shall be 2 days allowed for make-up work for each day of absence. In cases where an assignment is given with a due date of 4 days or more in advance, and the student has been properly communicated to about the date due, it is the responsibility of the student to get the assignment in on time. If the assignment is not turned in on time, the class policy for late work may be enforced. If there is a test or quiz scheduled four days in advance and the student is absent on the day of the test, they will be responsible to complete the test or quiz upon returning to class.

Make-up work shall be allowed following an unexcused absence or following a student's suspension from school with the goal of providing the student an opportunity to keep up with the class and an incentive to attend school. This work may receive full or partial credit to the extent possible as determined by the building administrator.

Unless otherwise permitted by the building administrator, make-up work shall not be provided during a student's expulsion. Rather, the district shall offer alternative education services to the expelled student in accordance with state law. The district shall determine the amount of credit the expelled student will receive for work completed during any alternative education program.

Tardiness

Tardiness is defined as the appearance of a student without proper excuse after the scheduled time that a class begins. Because of the disruptive nature of tardiness and the detrimental effect upon the rights of the non-tardy student to uninterrupted learning, appropriate penalties may be imposed for excessive tardiness. Four tardies will be equated to one absence.

In an unavoidable situation, a student detained by another teacher or administrator shall not be considered tardy provided that the teacher or administrator gives the student a pass to enter the next class. Teachers shall honor passes presented in accordance with this policy. The provisions of this policy shall be applicable to all students in the district, including those above and below the age for compulsory attendance as required by law.

Field Trips

Field trips are considered an essential part of a student's educational experience. However, a student's attendance, behavior, and classroom performance may affect a student's ability to participate in a field trip. Proper student conduct is expected and all DCSD school rules apply. Parental permission slips must be signed and returned to the appropriate staff member. Participation in a field trip is voluntary, but an alternative assignment may be given.
